

GERMAN EFFORTS TO ADVANCE HAVE BEEN REPELLED

French Repulse All Hun Attacks and Take Prisoners

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, June 5.—All the efforts of the Germans to advance in the French sector have been repelled, according to the war office announcement tonight. Ground has been regained by the French and prisoners taken. The statement reads:

"During the day the enemy multiplied at different points of the front his efforts to advance, but was everywhere repulsed, suffering serious losses. An attempt to cross the Oise near Montargis completely failed. "North of the Aisne our counter attacks regained the entire ground which had been temporarily occupied near Vingre. We captured more than one hundred and fifty prisoners and some machine guns.

"In the region of Longpont, the Germans had been making progress around Chavagny farm where they were driven out leaving in our hands about fifty prisoners. Everywhere else our positions were maintained. Our aviators were very active in the whole fighting zone. On June 4, in a double expedition in the valley of the Saviers, our bombing squadrons dropped more than seventeen tons of projectiles on enemy concentrations which were completely dispersed. On the night of the four, about fourteen tons of explosives were dropped on the railway stations at Fismes, Perre en Tardenois, Rove and Bohain.

Four enemy machines were brought down and two captive balloons burned. An enemy machine on a grand aerial having four motors was brought down on the night of June 1-2 in the region of Nanteuil in Haudouin. Its crew of eight men was made prisoners."

Pressure on West Flank

With the French Army in France, June 5.—By The Associated Press.—The enemy's entire pressure appears now to have been turned upon the western flank where he is making the greatest efforts to straighten out the bulge in his lines. occasioned by the determined resistance of the allies. The point of his most pronounced advance on the southern end of the bulge in Troesmes, northeast of Le Mans, while the northern point of the bulge is at Moulins-Sous-Touvent, northwest of Soissons. Between these two points the Germans have brought much of their artillery and local operations in which infantry and machine gunners are engaged are almost incessant. North of the Aisne as well as to the southward, every attempt of the Germans in the last few days to make further progress has been frustrated as soon as it was begun. The allies even have been able to improve their positions at some points.

This was the case between Courcy and Longpont today. Here the opposing lines ran along the edge of the forest of Villers Cotterets, which the Germans are trying to enter. The Germans have assaulted several times unsuccessfully. From this vicinity they have been bombarding La Ferté-Maclos, but have been unable to break down the barrier of heavy guns. The allies are holding firmly at both ends despite inferior numbers and the German push appears to have reached an obstacle difficult to overcome.

PARIS, June 5.—Ninety out of every hundred American soldiers wounded in the Cantigny battle will recover.

This is the judgment of the principal surgeons in the American army medical corps which is caring for them. The wounded were brought away from the fighting line without delay when the battle was at its bitterest. Wounded have been brought to American hospitals in the neighborhood of Paris, both from Cantigny and Veuilly wood.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Allied resistance is still being made against Germans on the battle front from Soissons to Chateau-Thierry. Nowhere is the enemy progressing.

Fury of the invaders, however, has not yet been checked, for all along the front they are launching assaults on various sectors in the hope allied ranks may give further ground which would enable the enemy to straighten the line from Moulins-Sous-Touvent, north west of Soissons, to Troesmes, southeast of Villers-Cotterets.

Great masses of artillery and large numbers of troops are being used by Germans in almost continuous battles, but the allied line everywhere has held strongly and at several points defenders have taken the offensive and improved their positions.

Standing out in sharp contrast against previous communications, claiming gains by means of arms or the falling back of the allies, is the announcement made in Berlin Wednesday night.

"On the battle front the situation is unchanged," says the announcement.

The Germans are still suffering heavy casualties in their unsuccessful assaults.

Along the Marne front there has been no further fighting of great moment also in the vicinity of Rheims the German artillery has begun a violent bombardment which probably indicates another infantry attack in this region, which has been relatively quiet for several days. The American troops in the Lunerville sector daily are showing their merit in fights with the enemy. Wednesday witnessed another venture carried out successfully by them, thirty of the German lines and penetrating them to the third defenses and assaulting the 200 occupants of them with rifles, bayonets and grenades. The losses of the enemy were numerous while the American casualties were very small.

The Germans seemingly are fearful of the band of warriors in the Lunerville sector, for they again have increased the rain of shells of all kinds, including gas, upon and behind the American line firing them from guns or dropping them from airplanes.

Unintended praise continues to be given the Americans for their intrepidity. There still has been no resumption of the battle on the front in Flanders and Picardy where the British are facing the Germans. The enemy however, is carrying out violent bombardments on various sectors. In the Amiens sector near Morlancourt, the Germans made an attempt to capture a British position but were repulsed, the British taking some prisoners. Near Lens the British also captured a number of Germans. Unofficial reports credit the Russians with a victory over the Turks and Germans in the Kars district of Transcaucasia.

AFTER WAR TRADE TO BE DISCUSSED

Economic Representative Appointed to Join American Embassy at Rome.

Washington, June 5.—What may be the first step in a general policy of more active participation by the United States in preparations of nations at war with Germany for the after the war trade struggle has been taken in appointment of an economic representative of the state department to join the American embassy at Rome. It was learned today the new envoy is about to go to his post. The recommendation of the Paris economic conference never has been formally accepted by the United States which has viewed with disfavor attempts to interpose artificial obstructions to free commerce, even with former enemies, recent developments in Europe have led to conferences here between representatives of the entente powers and officials of the state departments and the war time board which may result in change of attitude by the United States government.

TAFT PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS

CDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, June 5.—Former President William Howard Taft, here on a speaking tour, today paid the following tribute to Charles W. Fairbanks, who died yesterday in Indianapolis: "Charles W. Fairbanks was an able, industrious, effective, patriotic and high-minded public servant. Few men know more of the practical workings of the government of the United States. "No breath of suspicion was associated with his fair name. "He aspired to the presidency and he was right in doing so, for his experience, his ability and his public spirit would have enabled him to discharge his duties acceptably and well. "Since Mr. Fairbanks' retirement and my own, I came to know him well and to value very highly his very exceptional qualities, as a public spirited citizen and as a man. I greatly mourn his death."

JUNE 24 CALL DRAINS ILLINOIS OF CLASS 1 MEN

This State's Quota is Largest with New York Second

WASHINGTON, June 5.—While a million young Americans just turned 21 were registered today for service in the war for world freedom, orders went out from the office of Provost Marshal General Crowder to the governors of all states except Arizona for mobilization between June 24 and 28 of 200,000 more registrants. This was in addition to 40,000 negro men requisitioned from twenty states and brings the total of selective service men called to the colors to 1,536,704 and when they are in camp the nation's army will number well over 2,000,000.

Assignments for the men called to the colors under today's order indicate the rapidity with which troops now are moving overseas. In nearly every instance the registrants under today's requisition are assigned to national army cantonments, whereas recently when calls were made it was necessary to send the men to the national guard, regular army and other camps because the cantonments were filled.

Illinois is directed to furnish 28,500 men under the latest call—1,000 to Camp Gordon, Ga.; 5,000 to Camp Grant, Ill.; 8,500 to Camp Jackson, S. C.; 7,000 to Camp Taylor, Ky.; 5,000 to Camp Wheeler, Ga.

New York with 14,000 is second on the list. Pennsylvania is to furnish 12,000 and Minnesota 10,000. Iowa is to furnish 3,000 to Camp Dodge, Iowa.

The house military committee today reported a resolution by Chairman Dent making retroactive the bill basing draft quotas on the number of men in Class 1, so as to legalize any exceeding of authority as to the number of quota which may have been made in the first drafting. The resolution was recommended by the war department.

NO OPPOSITION TO MANUFACTURE OF BEER

Administration Will not Oppose the Use of Foodstuffs in Manufacture of Beer and Wines.

Washington, June 5.—Administration opposition to any attempt to stop the manufacture of beer and wine so long as the sale of whiskey is permitted, was made certain today with the announcement that the food administrator Hoover opposed such a step because he believed the evils attendant upon putting the nation on a "whiskey," "brandy" and "gin" basis would far outweigh the small food savings that would result.

President Wilson had said in a letter to Senator Sheppard of Texas, Prohibition champion and Democratic member of the agriculture committee, he would not use his power to prohibit the use of foodstuffs in beer and wine unless Mr. Hoover regarded such a step necessary to feeding this country and the allies.

After the position of president and the food administrator had been made known, Senator Sheppard and others said the senate would strike from the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural bill a house amendment prohibiting the use of $6,000,000 carried by the measure unless manufacture of wine and beer was stopped by the president. Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the agricultural committee on his return to Washington tonight said he was inclined to oppose the amendment because a very small proportion of grain is being used in the production of alcoholic liquors since the distilling of whiskey was stopped last September. Senator Smith said he would be made to have his committee take up the bill without delay. Mr. Hoover explained his position in a statement made public tonight along with his letter to Senator Sheppard.

He said that if "the American people want prohibition it should prohibit by legislation to that end and not force the food administration to the responsibility for an orgy of drunkenness."

U. S. MINISTER TO DENMARK RESIGNS

Washington, June 5.—Maarice F. Egan, United States minister to Denmark has resigned. He wrote to the president that after several experiments under direction of his physician he had discovered it would be impossible for him to resume his post within what would seem a reasonable time and felt it would be an injustice not to resign.

The president replied that acceptance of the resignation was dictated by public duty, expressed hope that Mr. Egan's health would be restored soon and added:

"I must not deny myself the pleasure of saying how sincerely I have appreciated the distinguished and highly successful service you have rendered the government or of expressing again my personal admiration and confidence."

SUBMARINE RAIDERS DISCLOSE POSITIONS

Raiders Steadily Moving Southward from New Jersey Coast.

Washington, June 5.—The German raiders again have disclosed their position. An announcement from the navy department tonight said the Norwegian Steamer Eidsvold was sent to the bottom at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon forty miles off the Virginia Capes. The entire crew was rescued today by a naval supply ship. Details are lacking.

That is the last word received by the department showing the raiders' position. In thirty hours after the attack on the Eidsvold nothing has come to indicate where the Germans were or what they were about.

It is evident the raiders had been moving steadily southward from the New Jersey coast. Presumably they were back yesterday when they first began operations against coasting schooners. The raiders were closer in shore when they attacked the Eidsvold except when they launched mines picked up off Delaware Capes. The Tanker Pratt apparently struck one of these mines and a number of others unexploded have been gathered up in the same vicinity by patrol craft.

The French Cruiser Radioline, yesterday attacked at 9:30 o'clock off the Maryland coast, probably was a hundred miles north of the place where the Eidsvold was sunk eight hours later.

It is increasingly evident that the U-boats are avoiding armed craft, and the vigilance of the navy patrol has kept them far away from the principal ports where they are in American waters. Their strategy and the only explanation so far found acceptable is that offered by Secretary Daniels to members of congress—an attempt to terrify the United States into recall of its fighting ships from European waters for home defense.

AMERICAN PILOTS DOWN GERMAN PLANE

Battle German Plane At 5,000 Meters Altitude.

With the American Army in France, June 5.—By The Associated Press.—An American lieutenant and another pilot engaged a German biplane over the lines northwest of Toul this morning and forced the enemy plane down inside its own lines after a hot fight.

After the two American pilots left the scene of the landing several hundred of the enemy men and officers gathered around where the machine had settled down and the American aviator dropped many shells on the spot, wrecking the machine and inflicting some casualties.

The air battle started at an altitude of 5,000 meters, the American pilots attacking first from under the tail. When one of the Americans got on top the German observer cut loose with a stream of bullets, two of which penetrated the fuselage and exploded. The pieces splattered in all directions but the American airmen continued fighting and forced the Boche to the earth. That the bullet was of the explosive type is said to be certain.

Enter German Trenches.

With the American Army in France, June 5.—By The Associated Press.—An American patrol of thirty men penetrated to the enemy third lines in the Lunerville sector early this morning. The Americans encountered two hundred Germans and attacked them with hand grenades, bayonets and bullets.

The fight lasted twenty minutes and many losses were inflicted on the enemy. The American loss was extremely light.

TWO AVIATORS KILLED IN FALL AT BROOKS' FIELD

San Antonio, Texas, June 5.—Lieutenant Franklin W. Clark of Medina, Ohio, died tonight at the post hospital at Brooks' Field as the result of a fall two miles south of the field yesterday. His fall occurred almost at the same moment as the fall in which Lieutenant John J. O'Malley of Albany, Mo., was killed, although the two men were several miles apart. Clark's accident was not made known until his death was announced. He was a graduate of Oberlin college and was the son of F. J. Clark of Medina.

BRITISH REPORT

LONDON, June 5.—Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters tonight says:

"As a result of the raid attempted by the enemy early this morning in the neighborhood of Morlancourt we captured twenty-one prisoners and three machine guns. Beyond the usual artillery activity on both sides there is nothing to report from the British front."

LONDON, June 5.—British Admiralty per Wireless Press.—The military correspondent of the British wireless service writes as follows concerning the operations on the western front:

"The situation in the Aisne sector may also be said to have remained that position of stability to disturb which would require the introduction of some new factor. All operations of the last 24 hours have had only local or tactical significance and in the balance have been as much in favor of the allies as of the enemy."

LONDON, June 5.—The British communication dealing with aviation issued this evening says: "The weather was overcast on the British front yesterday and the enemy's aircraft were not active. One hostile machine was brought down by our airplanes and another driven down out of control. One German balloon was destroyed.

BERLIN, June 5.—via London.—On the battle front the situation is unchanged," says the German official communication issued this evening.

NON-WAR INDUSTRIES TO SOSE STEEL SUPPLY

Indications Point to Fact That Steel Shortage Will Necessitate Cutting Supply Off Non-War Industries.

Washington, June 5.—Indications of a steel shortage and that the government allies' requirements will necessitate the virtual cutting off of non-war industries from their steel supply, will be given the war industries tomorrow by J. Leonard Replogle, director of steel supply of the board.

Opinion among the members of the war industries board differs. Some profess to believe there will be sufficient steel to meet commercial requirements at least in part. Other particularly Mr. Replogle insist the government and the allies are going to take all the steel that can be produced during the next year.

In other branches of the government a like difference of opinion exists. One element holds that no radical curtailment should be made, chiefly on the ground that it will take from two to four years to get to Europe materials now manufactured, ordered or in process of manufacture.

At 9:15 a. m. June 4th, the Radioline saw an English smoke box adrift and later passed a large quantity of apparently wrecked wreckage. At 12:40 p. m. he heard three shots at the head and to the northward of his position. He heard one shot at 2:05 and one more shot at 2:15. At 7:15 a. m. apparently the same time he sighted the submarine. He sent a C. O. S. and shortly afterward someone unknown entered "O. K. S. O. S." At 7:55 a. m. he sighted a destroyer.

"The destroyer passed the Radioline at 8:10 making all speed heading in the direction of the submarine. Apparently the destroyer did not see the submarine until the Radioline changed course to starboard as the captain of the Radioline was kept between the submarine and the destroyer so the submarine would not see the destroyer. The captain did not see the submarine again and is unable to tell what the destroyer did because the Radioline was too far away when the destroyer reached the spot where the submarine disappeared."

MORE ARRESTS IN ST. LOUIS FIRE INQUIRY

Two Foreigners Arrested in Place of Responsibility of Arsenal Fire.

St. Louis, Mo., June 5.—Two more arrests (making three) were made today at requests of the military board of inquiry which seeks to place responsibility for the $1,000,000 fire at the United States arsenal here Saturday night.

Le Miller, native of Germany, who took out his first papers ten years ago was arrested at a rooming house. He is said to have declared the night before the fire that he had been discharged from the arsenal and that he "would get even."

Albert Hasch, 46, native of Denmark, who has taken out his first naturalization papers was also arrested. Hasch has been employed at the arsenal and shortly before the fire complained of being sick and was granted permission to go home. The gate man said he never left the arsenal grounds. Anton Ronjack, an unaturalized Austrian was arrested when he attempted to visit the stockade at the arsenal shortly after the fire started. Three men are held for the federal authorities.

THE FOSS CANDIDACY.

George E. Foss has announced his candidacy for Republican nomination as U. S. senator. Congressman Foss has for more than twenty years served in the house of representatives and has made an excellent record there.

For the greater part of that long period he has served on the committee on naval affairs and is therefore well informed on all naval matters relating to the U. S. A great many Republicans in Chicago and downstate who have a high opinion of Congressman Foss personally and because of his congressional record, had hoped that the rumor of his candidacy would not be fulfilled.

These friends of Congressman Foss have the feeling that his candidacy would not likely take on enough strength to enable him to defeat Mayor Thompson and would greatly strengthen the chances for the nomination of Mayor Thompson. No one can question the ability of Congressman Foss nor the excellence of his record thru a long period of public service, but in some manner it should be possible to reduce the field of senatorial candidates to two.

FOR MEN IN THE DRAFT.

Most young Illinois men within the army draft says the State Council of Defense, can have considerable advantage over young men from other states by seizing the opportunity to get the rudiments of military drill before they go to the training camp. The advantage is this:

The young men who know just a little bit about military drill—who can come to "Attention," can "Count fours," can "About face," or can "Right," "Shoulder arms"—is a marked man from the moment he arrives in camp. Thereafter, if he takes hold well, he will miss many or most of the disagreeable little duties that fall to the majority of recruits. Right away, or as soon as the training camp, he will be able to get the rudiments of military drill and begin receiving drill. The young men who have the rudiments will be the corporals and sergeants and on their way to commissions.

Illinois young men can get the advantage of the preliminary training, whether they have time for much or little, wherever there is a company of the Illinois Reserve Militia or a unit of the Volunteer Training Camp. All they have to do is make themselves known to the commander of the Reserves or Volunteer Training Corps nearest them. They do not have to join the unit. All they need to do is too "sit in"—on, more accurately, step in—and join in the drill of the unit. They are invited and will be welcome. Then, when they go to the training camp, they will thank their stars for having got an inkling of what military drill means.

AN ABLE SCHOOL WORKER

The Jacksonville public schools will lose this year a number of excellent teachers by means of the resignations which were recently received by the board of education. In this group none has rendered more faithful or efficient service to the Jacksonville school system than Miss Anna Brown, who has been for a number of years the director of manual training in the schools. Miss Brown established the department and thru the years has broadened its usefulness. Miss Brown is exceedingly capable, is devoted to the work she knows so well and has in addition a deep interest in the pupils who come into her classroom.

MORGAN COUNTY'S FOUR HUNDRED.

The call for 400 additional men of Morgan county for army service this month came to the local board Wednesday, as a surprise. It was known that the state was to be called upon for 25,000 men but the local board had not believed that the quota for this county would be so large. When this number of men have been sent, Morgan county will have between 1,000 and 1,100 men in the service of the army and navy.

With such a large representation in active service, it can be seen at a glance how very close the war has been brought to homes and hearts in Morgan county. While this order indeed, means that men are being taken very rapidly, to many people there is an underlying touch of optimism because of that very large representation of military movement. It is the general opinion of those who give any thought to the subject that the quicker and the larger the preparations that the U. S. can make for military operations, the earlier will be the termination of this great conflict. Germany apparently for a long time did not believe that the U. S. was in earnest in its participation in the war. Today there are many German soldiers who still believe that America's participation is more a matter of talk and promise than of actuality.

The surest and best way of clearing away the doubts about American interest is a great force on the fighting line. This proven interest will not only answer German inquiry but will give new heart and strength to the soldiers of the allied nations, who, month after month and year after year, have been bearing the great brunt of the fighting.

Four hundred men from Morgan county. It is in truth a large number. It calls for bravery on the part of the men in entering the service and bravery and self-denial on the part of the older people that they leave behind. The prowess and the fortitude of those at the front cannot avail much, as has been often said, unless the army behind the lines is doing its full duty in useful work and in generous support of the activities. Perhaps we think we know something about what service and sacrifice means, but coming days will put us to the test and if the lesson has not been learned there will be the opportunity for the learning.

"STILL UNSATISFIED."

The twenty-fifth anniversary exercises at Illinois Woman's college, planned especially in honor of Dr. Joseph R. Harker, came to a close yesterday. So many laurels have been worthily bestowed upon Pres. Harker during the program just closed that a man of lesser strength might be led into the belief that his life work was accomplished and that his remaining years could well be spent in thinking of past achievement. But those who know President Harker are well aware that such a state of mind is exactly what will not happen to him.

While thru all these days President Harker has expressed his keen appreciation for the kindly encomiums heaped upon him, he has also deftly brushed them aside and turned attention rather to the college than to himself. In the exercises of the week no truer word has been spoken for him than yesterday that "heaven has kept him 'still unsatisfied.'"

Many men have visions, many men have dreams and build castles in the air. But these dreams and visions and castles are worth while only if there is yoked with them the earnest and practical purpose of realization. It has been Dr. Harker's part to have dreams and then make the dreams come true—to replace the air castles with walls of brick and stone and mortar. Some men pray with great earnestness and leave all the answering to heaven without having first exhausted all their own resources. Dr. Harker has great faith in prayer but those who know him best know that he leaves no stone unturned in his efforts to see that his prayers are answered. And so thru the years he has been kept "still unsatisfied," and the close of each year has shown a marked advance for the Woman's college under his direction, yet the president has been no nearer his goal.

It is indeed a great fact in the lives of men that real ideals—those well worth while—constantly advance and more than keep pace with progress. So as men grow and develop, instead of approaching nearer their ideals and goals, they really increase the distance between them year after year.

It is so with President Harker. He has accomplished great things for the Woman's college and for the cause of education, but these things are small compared with his vision of the future—with his thought of what the coming years hold for the institution. And as President Harker has so often done in a public way, recognition should be given to the cherished assistance he has had thru the years from Mrs. Harker, the mother of the Woman's college for these twenty-five years.

FOUR HUNDRED MORE FROM MORGAN COUNTY

THIS IS THE QUOTA OF MEN FOR ARMY SERVICE THIS MONTH.

Local Board Registered Two Hundred Young Men Wednesday—They Will Not Be Available for the June Call—All Class One Men Will Enter Service This Month. Deferred Classifications for Farm Workers Will Thus Will Be Wiped Out.

The local board of Morgan county spent an especially busy time Wednesday when registration was made of young men of Morgan county who have attained the age of twenty one years since the 6th of June, 1917. Two hundred young men were registered. County Clerk Boruff and his assistants had offered their services and the registration took place in the commissioners' room adjoining the clerk's office. President Weir, Secretary Doying, Adjutant Green and Misses Mount and Wyle assisted in the registration as did Judge Edward P. Brockhouse, who has been designated by the adjutant general for the work.

The registration is nearly complete but the number is not quite as large as the board anticipated. A further opportunity is now given for registration and any young man in Morgan county who has reached the age of twenty one since the date indicated and has not registered, should immediately do so for he will thus save himself from embarrassment.

All Class 1-A Men to Go.
The notification which came to the board yesterday that 400 men will be sent from this county to Camp Zachary Taylor impressed members of the board at once with the great task that faces them. They had not expected such a heavy quota. It is clearly impossible to include in this call any of the young men who registered yesterday and so the order means that all of the class 1-A men will be included and that some men from other classifications must be taken.

Young men who have been given temporary deferred classification on agricultural grounds will now be sent to the camp, Mr. Weir, president of the board, stated last night that with an order for such a large number of men it was immediately apparent that every man must go as his name is drawn.

Class 1-A now includes the names of 69 married men, 225 single men who are farmers, 41 single men not farming and 23 others whose cases have for one reason or another been in abeyance. These men just enumerated number 355. In addition before going to other classifications the board has available 75 men who on special instructions of the district board were placed in class 1-J. These are married men without children. For one reason or another some of these men will probably not be available for service, so that to secure 400 will mean practically a clean up of all the classifications and lists enumerated.

Executive Board Session Today.

The 200 men registered Wednesday are as given below. As already indicated, these men can not possibly be available for service under the present call as it will take a number of weeks to have their questionnaires filled out, physical examinations made and the legal time allowance made for filing exemption claims. Because of the special amount of work which is now pressing the members of the local board will be in executive session today until 2 o'clock and cannot be interviewed except by any persons with whom they may have made engagements. After two o'clock this afternoon they will be in position to again receive persons having business with the board.

Morgan county is asked to furnish men for special training at Valparaiso, Ind., university and three for training at Bradley Polytechnic institute, Peoria. The order from the adjutant general's office in describing the work says:

"Only white men and men physically qualified for general military service, who have received at least a grammar school education and have had some experience along mechanical lines and have some aptitude for mechanical work, should be inducted under this call," says the order to the board. "The men selected for this service will receive a course of training at government expense fitting them to serve in army positions incident to many kinds of military service both at the front and behind the lines. The men taking these courses will receive thorough instructions which will be of great personal value in working their way ahead both in the army and in civil life. These are exceptional opportunities for energetic, ambitious men."

YEAR IS CLOSED AT THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

BISHOP NICHOLSON GAVE INSPIRING COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Diplomas Awarded to Large Class of Young Women in Various Departments—Statement of the President a Cause for Satisfaction to Friends of College.

To the striking notes of the Festival March grandly rendered on the organ the academic procession filed into Music Hall at the Woman's College yesterday. Former students, present students, alumni, graduates, trustees and visiting dignitaries, all making an imposing array, and were duly seated in places assigned them.

Dr. Wedderburn, pastor of St. James Methodist church offered the invocation and then Dr. Barker remarked that those who had been students at the college in times past will especially remember the morning exercises when certain passages of scriptures were repeated and then he led in giving the 23rd Psalm, Philippians 4:1-8, Hymn No. 359 in the Methodist hymnal was then sung after which, with highly complimentary remarks Dr. Barker introduced Bishop Nicholson as speaker of the occasion. Of his fine address a short portion is given. He said:

"Facing Great Opportunities The class graduating today faces the greatest opportunities which have awaited any class for years. Our national ideas are becoming greatly modified. Before this dreadful war we were falling into luxurious and bad habits. Our language was becoming colloquial and too much mixed with slang but now we hear a more militant note and the American people are becoming welded together for something higher than the dollar. An end will be put to excesses which mean weakness and something more vigorous and sane dance halls will be sought."

Great changes are coming and more emphasis is to be placed on woman's work and position. She has been going forward by leaps and bounds to a higher and nobler sphere. Away in the past woman has occasionally risen high above her sisters. We have the case of Cleopatra, Dido, the wife of Aeneas, Penelope, Esther and others but they were rare exceptions. In the 31st chapter of Proverbs King Lemuel portrays the choice woman of his day and her virtues were altogether domestic; that day has passed and now women have something more exalted. Now woman is emancipated from such duties and may attain her full share of opportunities and responsibilities.

I know of a girl who was bound out and worked hard for a cruel master who beat and abused her and treated her as a man would not be permitted to treat a girl in this country but in spite of it she rose to a good position. I know another whose other was too stingy to give her an education but finally gave her her time and she went to school to work, graduated from high school and a Methodist college, and is now occupying a position of usefulness.

Woman Coming Into Own The conscience of the north arose against slavery. We do not see God in this awful war but His hand is here. The end will see a great transformation or ideas. Woman will be emancipated by this conflict just as the slaves were by the Civil Conflict. In a woman's rights convention before the war the resolutions demanded for her freedom from many restraints: the chance to work for wages, to own property, to make contracts, testify in court, get a divorce a fair share of her husband's wages and to vote and all but the last have been granted and that is coming.

As a result we see the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society the Woman's Home Missionary Society and other organizations showing that woman is coming to her own. Witness the Sorosis and the host of organizations to which a woman may belong.

It took a long time to get women into our colleges. It has been said that Oberlin led the way in this but it did not; it was a Methodist institution. Now she is rapidly outnumbering the men in many colleges and I see her too on the faculties of many. While she is almost monopolizing the calling of school teaching. Woman has been greatly advanced in the professions also and is making steady strides right along. The idea that she is only to be loved and protected is passing away and she is taking her place in the great world side by side with man.

The great war broke out just as the agitation for Women's rights in England was at its height when women were doing all manner of things to attract recognition but now I read from an English magazine the marvelous strides she is making in the professions, trades, agricultural labors, munition factories and hosts of other places heretofore monopolized by men. While all know the valor and prowess of the women soldiers in Russia.

It was the killing of women demanding bread that precipitated the revolution in Russia. The ranks of the foreign missionaries have largely been recruited by women and today we have an immediate call for 124 consecrated women to go abroad as messengers for Christ.

Dr. Barker Builded for Future. Dr. Barker said all this year ago and builded better than he knew. God writes on consecrated hearts the needs of the future and so He led Dr. Barker to do things. God leads the man and the action that prays and not the cruel tyranny which is threatening the peace of the world. Dr. Barker took this college 25 years ago when it was at a low ebb and has accomplished wonders and we are under many obligations to him for what he has accomplished.

All should give and work for this institution. This grand collection of buildings is a monument to the energy and perseverance of the head of the college. This organ given by Dr. Schell is a tribute to the giver and receiver. He who saves his life shall lose it but he who gives it for others shall save it. We are educated that our usefulness may be increased. A group of conferences—should make this college their own especial charge. Young women should be inspired to nobler efforts. No names are higher than its homes. Woman should not be hurried out of sight in the home but should be a full partner in all that is going on and man should do his full share of home duties.

Women Doing Great Work. The armies in Europe are subjected to terrible temptations and noble women are exerting themselves to the utmost to fight them and lead the soldiers to pure and better lives. All manner of temptations are spread in their way. The pay of Belgian and French soldiers is pitifully small, while our men get liberal pay and they are sought by harpies of all classes.

Near a gilded hall where Vice was made attractive was erected a "Y" hut and I am glad to say that while it was crowded the gilded palace had few patrons and I am proud to say that it is stated on good authority that our armies are cleaner morally and physically than any in the history of the world. The time has come to speak plainly of evil and combat it manfully.

We must christianize our colleges. Heretofore they have been given too much to snobbery and fashion. A girl who had attended a great eastern college for women said that what they most desired there made her sick. Shall woman be a cause for evil in this war? Nothing so serious are well enough but there is something more noble and grand for woman it is to make the world safe for man while he makes it safe for democracy.

Woman has distanced man in many problems and has showed superior ability. She has taken honors in college and in the professions for she is capable of more concentrated effort than man. Much credit for progress in many directions is due to woman. She must put heart and soul in diplomacy and business. Her hand must be seen in all callings and her voice heard in no uncertain manner. To her vote is due much to the credit for banishing the saloon to so great an extent and I eagerly anticipate the day when the evil of liquor will be done away in this our beautiful land and when that comes to pass much of it will be due to women.

The stream of life must be kept pure by the mingling with all virtues the woman of the day. We need more of God in everything. Our histories and school books leave him our far too much. We need the teachings of Christ in all departments of life. Our colleges should be places where the Son of Man has the first place. Young ladies; I beseech you go out and be true to your best convictions. Be of service and don't be butterflies. We are living in a great and momentous time; God grant that we may live nobly devoted to every duty.

C. ALUMNAE HAD UNIVERSITY PROGRAM

Annual Meeting of the Association Was Held Wednesday—The Final Event of the College Commencement Exercises—Dr. Wedderspoon Was Toastmaster.

The alumnae association luncheon of Illinois Women's College was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harker, which today does not have a single male citizen of army age. It is recorded that Scotland, with but a 5,000,000 population of men, women and children, has sent 900,000 men to the colors. The speaker referred to the most complimentary way to President Harker, connecting up his patriotic remarks with the occasion by emphasizing the fact that Dr. Harker has all along been teaching lessons of patriotism and instilling the principles which have so large a place in the conflict of today. The toastmaster made the interesting prophecy that only a few years hence will see women in pulpits because young men are not turning to the ministry with enough rapidity, and furthermore, from the fact that women are so eminently capable for this work.

The toastmaster also referred facetiously to the fact that Dr. Harker is to be honored by the degree of L. L. D. from Northwestern university, mentioned other honors that have come deservedly and then suggested that they might as well make Dr. Harker a bishop and be thru with the honor giving.

A Backward Look

Mrs. Lillian Woods King was asked to recall some facts about the alumnae luncheon held just twenty five years ago. Mrs. King was the president of the association at that time and presided at the luncheon, the first that President Harker attended. Mrs. King recalled the fact that she sat that day next to Bishop Bowman and said that his presence filled her with some trepidation. He responded to the toast "Over the Teacups" and made appropriate references to the past of Illinois college and expressed a thought for its future. Mrs. Mary Mercer, a classmate of Mrs. King, was another speaker and her subject opened up the vista of years. Mrs. King herself had also expressed hope for the future, so that she could properly claim for herself and classmates some share in the success of Dr. Harker's administration, because they had a part in the vision of coming years as voiced at that first alumnae anniversary of his administration.

The next speaker was Miss Phyllis Wilkinson, a graduate of recent years, who responded to the toast.

"When I was young I made a vow
To love my friends, to laugh and live."

A tribute to President and Mrs. Harker was given and then Miss Wilkinson suggested how much a smile is worth in this world and how laughter adds to the years and comfort of life. One of the lessons learned at the Woman's College, the speaker said, was how to face the perplexing problems sure to come in every life, with of a verse of America and the conclusion was with another verse of that great hymn.

In the reference to his home land Dr. Wedderspoon told of the goodly town of Kilmarnock, which today does not have a single male citizen of army age. It is recorded that Scotland, with but a 5,000,000 population of men, women and children, has sent 900,000 men to the colors. The speaker referred to the most complimentary way to President Harker, connecting up his patriotic remarks with the occasion by emphasizing the fact that Dr. Harker has all along been teaching lessons of patriotism and instilling the principles which have so large a place in the conflict of today. One of the lessons learned at the Woman's College, the speaker said, was how to face the perplexing problems sure to come in every life, with cheerful mien and to press bravely on with smiling face, dismissing trouble with a laugh.

Cardinal Principles

Miss Mary Harrison's toast was "So give me a strong right arm for a wrong's swift righting; Stave of a song on my lips as my sword is smiling."

Miss Harrison after adding to the sum total of laurels already upon the brow of Dr. Harker, turned the thought to the great war with the suggestion that among the lessons taught at the Woman's college was co-operation and loyalty. It is these principles that mean so much today in the world struggle for liberty and as the Woman's college has hundreds of women in the ranks of alumnae into whom these principles have been instilled, the college is having this influence upon the war.

Miss Louise Gates was the last speaker and her sentiment:

"And when at last the fight is won,
God keep me still unsatisfied."

When so many words of praise had been spoken Miss Gates declared that it was very difficult to choose any new encomiums or indeed to repeat those of others in any new language. She suggested that, after all, the way for alumnae of the college to most honor President and Mrs. Harker was by carrying out the lessons of college life in their lives.

The True Ideals

The ideals as emphasized by the college had more in them than scholarship and included earnestness in living and kindness of spirit in all relations of life. She said that the sentiment of her toast was indeed well exemplified by Dr. Harker's life, for as president of the college he kept pressing on into newer and greater fields of usefulness and never attained his goal or was fully satisfied, because he steadily set his face forward.

The toastmaster then brought the program to a close, as he reiterated some of the complimentary statements made about both President and Mrs. Harker and expressed the hope that their labors which have been so fruitful during the last twenty-five years, might continue thru another quarter of a century, with the certainty that their eternal reward will be great. The entire company joined in a patriotic song and thus in an impressive way brought to an end the very notable program of Dr. Harker's twenty-fifth anniversary.

TIMELY RESCUE AT PARK BATHING BEACH

Prompt Action by Harold Hall Probably Saved Life of Young Woman Who Slipped into Deep Water.

Harold Hall proved to be the right man in the right place Wednesday afternoon at Nichols park bathing beach when he rescued Miss Irene Chapman from the water. There is a concrete wall with posts surrounding the bathing beach but the chain ordered weeks ago by the park board for additional protection has not yet been received. Miss Chapman slipped off this wall into the deeper water. She could not swim and a woman on the bank noted her plight.

Harold Hall, who can swim well was nearby and was able to reach down from the wall and pull the young woman from the water. She was limp and unconscious and he carried her quickly to the bank. He was assisted on landing by Mrs. Wallace Gibbs and the two worked with the young woman to restore circulation, and their efforts soon brought good results. Those who saw the happening were one in giving their praise to the young man for his prompt action and the good judgment shown. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hall.

FEDERAL MEDIATION

CHICAGO, June 5.—Striking members of the Stock Handlers' Union at the stock yards who walked out this morning and the Union Stock Yards and Transit company, their employer tonight were making time pending word of possible government mediation sought by the workers.

The strikers number 1,500 and set a monthly wage advance of $15 which was refused by the company officials who offered a $5 increase which the men rejected. The strike thus far has been marked by no disorder and on behalf of the strikers, W. Z. Foster, secretary of the Stock Yards Labor Council, which includes the Stock Handlers' Union, telegraphed secretary of Labor Wilson asking mediation.

The strikers are not employees of the packing companies whose workers were awarded increased pay and overtime and other concessions by arbitration. They are the men who unload, feed and water cattle arriving at the stock yards.

CAROLINA SURVIVORS
LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 5.—Except four who are in the city hospital recovering from shock and exposure all survivors of the Steamship Carolina were landed here yesterday left for New York tonight. A big crowd escorted them from the Morris Guards Armory after Mayor Bacharach had divided contributions totalling $1,002 secured by Shriners who parade the board walk with a large American flag stretched out. The name of Leo K. Bennett, New York, tonight was added to the list of survivors who landed here increasing the number to twenty-nine. There is a discrepancy in the totals of the persons aboard the Carolina when she was attacked. Stephen Morgan, agent for the New York and Porto Rico Steamship company declared that all but eighteen persons have been accounted for and that the total was 318.

Passengers from Boat No. 5, he declared the steamer carried 338.

RIVER MARNE
END OF HUN DRIVE

WASHINGTON, June 5.—With the official statement tonight declaring there is "no change" on the western battle front observers here became increasingly confident the river Marne, for the second time, has marked the end of a drive intended to rush resistance to the German war machine.

Unofficial reports from the front indicated that the crack German offensive divisions relied on time and again to break thru the allied lines were disappearing from the new battle front. If this is so officers believe it means preparations are already under way behind the German lines for a fourth blow. Where it might fall they hesitate to predict the some believe the enemy would derive greatest results by carrying out his original program of smashing thru to channel ports.

CLOSES ARGUMENT
IN STRAUSS TRIAL

Peoria, Ill., June 5.—Frank J. Quinn, delivering the closing argument for the defense in the case of Edgar A. Strauss for the murder of Berne M. Mead, his cashier, was still speaking this afternoon when court adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Mr. Quinn told the jury it would have been impossible for Mead to have been shot from behind as claimed by the prosecutor and asked them to think it over during the night. He argued that all the testimony corroborated the story told by Strauss on the witness stand. The case will hardly go to the jury before Friday morning.

Annual Report Read by Pres. Harker At I. W. C. Commencement

It is an honor and a pleasure to present my report as president, now for the twenty-fifth time. The good hand of our God has been upon us for good during all these years, and He has led us in a way that we did not know. We render sincere thanks to Him for the providence that has watched over the college in these years, keeping us in so large a measure of health, raising up so many friends, and making possible the progress and advancement that has marked the entire period.

It is not necessary to recount in detail the growth of the college in these twenty-five years. It may be summarized by saying that the appraised assets of the college have increased from a valuation of $70,000 in 1893 to a valuation of $700,000 in 1918; and that the scholastic rank of the school has been advanced from that of a seminary or secondary school in 1893 to that of a fully recognized standard college in 1918. The financial advance of the college has averaged $25,000 a year for each year of the entire period. The increase was small each year in the earlier years, but there has not been a single year that has not shown some advance, and for the last eight years it has averaged nearly fifty thousand dollars a year.

Trustees.
We welcome at this meeting a new trustee, Mr. C. C. Grimmer, of Palmyra, Illinois, who takes the place of Mr. W. E. Veitch, whose resignation because of declining health we regretfully accepted last year. Mr. Grimmer is one of the most prominent laymen in the Illinois Conference, actively helpful in many Church interests, and secretary of the Laymen's Association. He brings to the College an already deep interest in its work and advancement, a wide acquaintance through the Conference, and fine ability as a successful business man.

I record my appreciation of the interest that the trustees are taking in all the work of the college. They have contributed generously to its needs, both for current funds and for endowment, and they have given time and thought to its administration.

This has been greatly helped by the good work for many years of Mrs. Belle Short Lambert, the Alumnae Secretary. Mrs. Lambert has this year done faithful work on a new register of former students and alumnae. She has gone thru all the catalogues and made a complete file of the names of all that have attended the college. She has secured the addresses of as many as possible. This list will be published as soon as it can be perfected, and will prove very valuable in keeping the college in touch with its former students. Much credit is due Mrs. Lambert for her patient and persistent work on these matters in spite of many obstacles and unavoidable delays.

The Gymnasium.
Last year we had the pleasure of realizing the long dream about gymnasium, this year we have had still more pleasure and advantage in its actual use. Interest has been increased in all physical work, and the results are apparent in the good health and increased physical vigor of the students. These results have been seen also in the exhibition of physical work witnessed by many friends on March 18. In the unusually successful May Day pageant on May 14, and in the increased interest in all forms of athletics.

The swimming pool is especially appreciated. I wish our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Blackstock, whose generous contribution made the pool possible, could see all the pleasure and profit their gift has brought. I am informed that more than one hundred girls have learned to swim this year. We are glad that we are able also to offer the advantages of the pool to the women of Jacksonville, and to teachers and girls from the public schools, many of whom have had great pleasure in its use.

The gymnasium is also proving of great service for the department of Expression and the Dramatic Club, who have given several successful plays the past year. We hope the coming year to add some much needed stage equipment if we can interest friends in that direction.

Great as have been the advantages the past year, we feel that we have not yet fully learned all that the gymnasium may do.

I am happy to say that the endowment and property assets of the college have been increased during the year by $27,469. This has come by bequests of Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver and Miss Emma Capps, who generously remembered the college in their will; by gifts on annuity by Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McCarty, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Collins, Mrs. Ellen M. Orr, Mrs. Anna C. McFadden and Miss Mary Brock; by a gift of $3,000 by a friend to establish the Amy Morris Mothershead Memorial scholarship, by a gift of $2,000 by Mr. John Kissack on the Dr. Short professorship; and by sundry smaller gifts to endowment and gifts to the library.

The college has also been remembered generously in the will of Mrs. Nancy Hurst Carr of Hamilton, Ohio, who died last June, and made the college the residuary legatee of her estate. I am informed by the executor that this will bring to the college about $10,000 which will be turned over about July 1st. It is not yet included in the statement of the college assets. I have recently learned, and I think it only just that I should make it public, that I owe this fine bequest largely to the interest of Miss Lula Hay, one of our efficient and devoted teachers in the College of Music. Miss Hay is a niece of Mrs. Carr, and suggested to her this generous gift.

The Aim of the College.

It has been our purpose in building up the college, increasing its endowment and gathering equipment in every department, to make it ready to meet every demand for the higher education of women, so that they will be fully prepared for whatever service may be expected of them in the life and business of the world. We believe that we now meet this ideal as few of the smaller colleges of the country do. A young woman can here secure advanced work in all the regular college studies, leading to the usual college degrees. She also has unusual opportunities in every branch of music, or art, or expression; and in all departments of household economy, domestic science and domestic art. The college with its high womanly ideals, its happy christian atmosphere, and its wide range of educational opportunity, is meeting a real educational need.

We have not been so concerned about numbers as about quality of womanhood and scholarship. My ideal for the college is that it be a high grade christian college for a limited number of well prepared students. And my ideal for every young woman who comes here is that she may find here the largest opportunity for healthy physical vigor, thorough instruction and training, and an inspiration that will last her thru life—a vigorous body, a scholarly mind, a strong and purposeful character, and a genuine personal religious experience.

We are happy to know that we are sending out a high type of American womanhood. Our graduates are making a fine record in every department. Whether they go to the universities for advanced work, as some do; or engage in teaching, as many do, occupying responsible positions in High Schools and Colleges; or go into secretarial work or government work; or take the places as makers of American Christian homes;—in every relation they make good, and are proving worthy of their Alma Mater. Woman's College girls are becoming leaders in every department of life into which they enter, and we are proud to believe that the college is greatly worth while.

I suggest that for the coming year provision be made to add to the courses offered a course in Spanish, and a course in Secretarial studies, as recommended by the government. These courses will prepare young women for teaching Spanish, which will without doubt before long take the place of German in many of our public schools, and for positions in the Civil Service, or to act as secretaries or as assistants to persons employed in scientific, literary, professional or large business concerns. There is already arising a large demand for women who have added to a college training adequate preparation for secretarial and business positions. I estimate that it will take about $2000 to provide the necessary instruction and equipment for these additional subjects, but I believe it will be one of the best investments the college can make, and earnestly hope it can be done.

Dreams and Visions.

It has been a pleasure to serve these twenty-five years and a satisfaction to see the constant and continued advancement of the college. As we look back over the years it seems like a series of dreams, and of waking to see the dreams come true. There has been a succession of clear visions, followed in a little while by the realization of the vision. Only one thing has persisted; the fact, early grasped, that the greatest need of the college is friends. The college has prospered just in proportion as it has found friends. My main business has been to find and make and keep friends for the school.

I have been painfully conscious of not being able to make friends of everybody, and every time I have lost a friend I have received a hurt. I fear I have been too strenuous, and that many times in my zeal and impetuosity I have hurt some of the best friends of the college. It has been true I fear that at times "the zeal of the college has eaten me up." I take this occasion to say that whenever this has occurred I regret it, and hope that these mistakes will be overlooked and forgiven. I have never hurt any friend intentionally.

I thank God for His guidance and His gracious providence, and for strength to meet the task as it has developed from day to day and from year to year. And I thank all the thousands of friends who have been so kind and patient, and who have made the college as it is today. Both Mrs. Harker and I appreciate all this kindness and patience beyond any words to express.

What of the Future.

I repeat in part what I said two years ago. The past has been glorious and inspiring. But the college still has the heart of youth and we believe that the near future has more of advance in it than the near past has had. God will still guide us, and will enable us to find men and women for leadership and for endowment to carry forward the college into the large place that it is destined to occupy. The workers may change, but the work will go on without interruption.

A great task is to be accomplished by 1921, the seventy-fifth year of the college when it celebrates its Diamond Jubilee Anniversary. Its past and endowment must be increased by at least $300,000, making a total of one million dollars. Let us keep our eyes fixed on that goal, and go forward without wavering. Let us believe that God will put it into the hearts of friends to make this possible; nay, that there shall be done for the college even more than we now ask or think.

In our college chapel we frequently pray God that all our works may be begun, continued and ended in Him. Twenty-five years ago I began with the prayer of the psalmist in the 90th Psalm. We do not know how better to close than with the same prayer: "Let thy work appear unto thy servant, and thy glory unto thy children; and let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us. Yet, the work of our hands establis Thou it."

WORLD'S BEST YODLER AT GRAND TODAY

Manager Johnson has been fortunate in securing O. B. Ellwood, famous yodler for Grand patrons the last three days of this week. It was an out-of-the-ordinary achievement in yodling that placed O. B. Ellwood, this season on the Al G. Field Greater Minstrels program, which can always be relied upon to present the leaders in each division.

Ellwood's voice, combined with his technique, gives an altogether new charm to the yodling numbers, which are a favorite with almost everyone. Such is his mastery of this art that he already promises to take permanent rank as the most skilled the stage has seen, although some singers in the past, have won lasting names for themselves in their yodling renditions.

BROTHER HAS BEEN LONG IN SERVICE.

Lawton Moore Hears From Brother He Has Not Seen in Ten Years—First Lieutenant in U. S. Army.

Lawton Moore of 213 West Walnut street this city on visiting the Y. M. C. A. yesterday was handed a letter addressed to him but sent in care of the Y. M. C. A. On opening it he was surprised to find that it was from his brother, Walter F. Moore, whom he had not seen for ten years and the last heard from him was in 1911. He was then serving in the U. S. army but sick in a hospital at the time. About that time the family moved to Jacksonville and they lost trace of each other. The elder brother, Walter, who is now a first lieutenant in the artillery division and while there but a short time was injured in an air raid in Paris, France and spent two months in the hospital, he had then fully recovered except for scars. He then got orders to return to the U. S. and give training in the cantonments and having met a friend of Lawton's that went from Jacksonville to a southern cantonment and thru their conversation Lawton's name was mentioned. He then was sure Lawton was his brother and wrote the letter but not having the address sent it in care of the Y. M. C. A. The family are overjoyed to hear from the son and brother and to know that he has given all these years in faithful service to his country.

TWO GRADUATE AT STATE SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Exercises of Interesting Character Held Wednesday—Address to Class Given by Rev. W. E. Collins.

The large chapel in the school building at the State School for the Deaf presented an interesting appearance Wednesday afternoon on the occasion of the graduating exercises. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with house plants and a great number of flags and looked very attractive.

Music by Miss Ruth Kingsley was followed with prayer by Dr. Madden of Grace church and then came a grand address by Rev. W. E. Collins, pastor of the Congregational church of this city. His theme was the "Challenge of the Goal." He said in part:

In the mighty conflict now going on England is fighting for existence as we fought in 1776. The liberty of the world is in danger and our very homes are threatened and the ideals we love are in danger.

We are here to see the boys go to the front and send with them our loyalty and support. We have a harder task ahead of us than they had in 1861-5 for we have a mightier foe against us. The civil war resulted in freeing the slaves, this war is to free the world from the curse of autocracy. We are here as a wall of steel. It is to keep Germany from taking to herself the world.

We will swear anew to be faithful to our native land and crush the cruel tyrant who would take our lives. God speaks to us thru the heroes who have gone before and how shall we meet it?

A Serious Reality. The challenge came to Paul to go to Rome and he went. Rome then was mistress of the world and her influence reached out all around and what they said went all over the earth. We must abandon low aims in life and challenge low aims. This is no early day picnic but a stern and serious reality.

A Greek father called his four sons to his dying bed and told them out in the orchard between rows of trees they would find a pot of gold buried years before. The boys went out and dug busily. They did much good to the trees and gained a large crop of fruit. Next year they took away some of the trees and dug more but found no gold but had a large increased yield of fruit and it dawned upon them that they were to do better cultivation and it would be truly a pot of gold. They did so and the gold came.

Life is a treasure if we seek it in work. A woman immigrant said she was coming to this country to supply the country with a president and the state with a governor and she did it.

Must be True to Ourselves. The challenge has come to us to be true to the flag; true to the boys at the front and true to ourselves. Giving of all we have if necessary thus to win the fight. We should stand up and speak out with no uncertain sound. We should be strong in the Lord and the power of His might and we shall conquer.

"America" was then sung by Miss DeMotte at the piano, translated by one of the faculty and enjoyed by all.

Ladislav S. Cherry then read his vaudeville essay, "The Tragedies of Poland." The young man read in the sign language and his address was interpreted by a member of the faculty.

In a finely prepared paper the young man depicted the rise, history and fall of the once great and happy land. Torn by internal dissensions it became the prey of Germany, Austria and Russia who divided its territory between them and crushed the country's government out of existence.

During all the years the Poles have kept up their language and customs and hoped that some day they would be free again and let us hope one result of the great war will be the restoration of Poland which would be a grand achievement.

PAID TRIBUTE TO PATRIOTS.

He paid a glowing tribute to Sobieski and Kosciuszko, grand patriots, whose memories will always be cherished.

His address to the teachers and the school was pathetic and eloquent. He told of the good they had received, the happy times they had enjoyed and the motto, "Always Striving," would be theirs thru life. He paid a fitting tribute to the retiring superintendent whose faithful labors have ever been productive of good.

The two graduates then recited in the sign language the well known poem, "Your Flag and My Flag," with translation by the chief teacher, Miss Frances Wood.

With suitable remarks, Miss Wood then presented the diplomas and the benediction by Dr. F. B. Madden ended the formal exercises. The graduates then retired to a room below where they received socially their friends and the congratulations of visitors.

The other graduate, Miss Frances P. Patterson, had prepared a graduating essay, "The History of the American Flag" but it was not read to the audience.

HE LIKES IT, TOO.

A prominent and well-to-do farmer (name withheld) of Franklin couldn't help but like the new Reo Touring Cars, so placed his order for one yesterday with The R. Haas Elec. and Mfg. Co., 314 E. State St.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

EARLY MEANS OF TRAVEL

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

There is some difference in rolling over the country in steam cars, trailers, and automobiles, nor even attempted to turn in this night. After running about ten miles, we laid by at the foot of an island.

"Dec. 2. . . . Put off, and by hard pulling contrived to keep moving until night, and passed by two boats of about our own dimensions. Met two keel boats ascending the river."

Tuesday, 30th (Dec.) Arrived at the morning at Shawneetown, where it was our intent to take the land to St. Louis, but am informed the roads are impassable. We, therefore, are compelled to wait until the opening spring shall enable us to take to the water. Got a room at Mrs. Cox's, at the end of the town.

Wednesday, Dec. 31st. Am told there is a probability of my getting a back, and determined to try. Finished taking out Mr. H's things and my own from the boat."

The Kelloggs, first settlers of Morgan county, came all the way from Old Point, up on the Monongahela, not far from Elmira, N. Y., down that river to Pittsburgh, and thence to Shawneetown, Illinois, in their flatboat; thence by land to Edwardsville and to the Sangamo Country—here.

The flatboats had an oarman at the stern to steer the boat. Sometimes these boats only floated with the current. Others of them were propelled by men with long, sweeping oars—or sweepers—projecting from each side of the deck of the boat, from two to several on each side. There were planks laid lengthwise, on each side of the deck, which were called "walking-boards." On these the men would walk forward with their oars, and then back to their starting place (with the sweeps raised out of the water) and thus propel the vessel. Sometimes there were two men on a side; sometimes several. In low water they made haste slowly, but in good stages they must have gained much from the current.

A feature of that early navigation on the Ohio, not to be forgotten was that the Indians would lie in wait for the travellers, and massacre or make prisoners of them, robbing their boats of the freight. It was not altogether a peaceful matter settling a region where the acute Red Man was paying his usual attention to his white visitors—or intruders. Tuesday, 30th (Dec.) Arrived at the morning at Shawneetown, where it was our intent to take the land to St. Louis, but am informed the roads are impassable. We, therefore, are compelled to wait until the opening spring shall enable us to take to the water. Got a room at Mrs. Cox's, at the end of the town.

The Kelloggs, first settlers of Morgan county, came all the way from Old Point, up on the Monongahela, not far from Elmira, N. Y., down that river to Pittsburgh, and thence to Shawneetown, Illinois, in their flatboat; thence by land to Edwardsville and to the Sangamo Country—here.

The flatboats had an oarman at the stern to steer the boat. Sometimes these boats only floated with the current. Others of them were propelled by men with long, sweeping oars—or sweepers—projecting from each side of the deck of the boat, from two to several on each side. There were planks laid lengthwise, on each side of the deck, which were called "walking-boards." On these the men would walk forward with their oars, and then back to their starting place (with the sweeps raised out of the water) and thus propel the vessel. GREENE COUNTY PLANS
GOOD ROADS MEETING

Second in Series of Booster Gatherings to be Held in Carrollton Next Wednesday—Graves, Funeral Largely Attended—Other Greene County News.

White Hall, June 4.—On Wednesday evening of next week, June 12th, at 7:30 o'clock a meeting will be held at Carrollton for the purpose of furthering the road organization formed at White Hall a short time ago in the interest of the $60,000,000 Illinois bond issue to be voted on at the ensuing general election in November. The next meeting at Carrollton is planned on a larger scale than the initial meeting at White Hall, and it is the idea that a still larger meeting will be held in the near future. As the voters are more aware that the $60,000,000 bond issue is to be taken care of exclusively from the revenue from the state automobile tax, the proposition meets with general favor, the point being that if the proposition is favored by the autocrats of the state, no one else should be against it. Notices have been sent out to road representatives in Morgan, Jersey, Calhoun and Greene counties to attend the meeting at Carrollton on the evening of the 12th, and a well attended and influential gathering is anticipated. It may be decided to embrace all four counties in the activities of one organization. The publicity department of the Illinois Highway Improvement association has been requested to furnish a speaker for the Carrollton meeting.

Two Prominent Weddings. Two weddings of prominent young people of this community took place on Saturday last. One nuptial event was that of Bert C. Tankersley and Miss Leila Linder, the ceremony being performed by Rev. John A. Simpson at the parsonage of the First Baptist church. The bride is the daughter of W. C. Linder of Patterson, and has been teaching in the White Hall school. The groom is a son of William Tankersley, residing just southeast of White Hall, and he comes from a family that is well known throughout Morgan and Scott counties.

The second wedding is that of Danforth Potts and Miss Ida Davis, which took place in St. Louis Saturday. The bride is the daughter of W. W. Davis of White Hall, and the groom is the son of C. E. Potts, residing just west of White Hall. These families are well known in this section, and all the contracting parties are graduates of the White Hall high school.

White Hall Notes. Commander A. A. Lorton and Chaplain A. W. Foreman, of the local G. A. R. post, are attending the state encampment at Peoria.

Rev. A. F. Ewert arrived home Saturday, after spending a month at an army camp at Spartanburg, S. C., as Y. M. C. A. secretary, and was greeted by a large audience at the Presbyterian church Sunday night to hear his account of war activities and observations. During his absence the pulpit has been filled very acceptably by Rev. R. L. of Jacksonville. It is rumored that Rev. Ewert does not intend to long remain at his White Hall charge.

Robert Shaw and probably some other Greene county boys have been transferred from Camp Taylor, Ky., to Chillicothe, Ohio, where they will be used in tutorships during the duration of the war.

The local Boy Scouts have been taking daily hikes under the direction of the new Scoutmaster, Rev. E. C. Lucas. The boys are becoming very proficient in the manual of arms, and at the present time at least they form the only organization that can be looked upon as home guards.

It is not possible to trace down a rumor that the railroad business at White Hall is to be consolidated, one station being used for passenger business and the other for freight business. While the idea seems plausible on the surface, it would involve a change of trackage at the junction of a passenger station and the interlocking plant north of town, either of which would involve an expenditure that might not prove economical when the engineers make up an estimate on the work. Therefore the consolidation of the railroad stations at White Hall is not an immediate probability.

For Tired Women
With Aching Heads

"They help me so much and I find relief as soon as I begin taking 'Foley Kidney Pills.' Mrs. Frank P. Wood, North, Maine, R. F. D. No. 2. Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain across your back. It is just making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. When you are constantly tired, head always aching, nervous 'edge' kidney action painful and burning, then is the time to start in at once on Foley Kidney Pills. They strengthen the weak, ailing kidneys, improve their action, enable them to throw off the poisons that cause your trouble. Your nerves grow peaceful sleep becomes sounder, nervous headaches disappear. As Mrs. Wood says: 'I find relief as soon as I take a box of Foley Kidney Pills. Be sure you get the genuine Foley Kidney Pills for they are purely medicinal and contain no harmful drugs.'

Earl Smith came down from Chicago Sunday to join his wife at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Smith, and a dinner party was held at the Smith home Sunday, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith and Ramond Pearce.

Sergeant Harry Lyons and Private Jos. Lyman were at home from Camp Taylor, Ky., for a week-end visit.

Col. L. L. Seely has returned from Massachusetts, where he conducted a sale of Berkshire hogs.

Advice received by relatives at White Hall say that Mrs. A. E. Meisenbach will soon leave St. Louis to spend six weeks at Round Lake, N. Y., to study voice at the summer school of A. Y. Cornell of New York City, and will visit New York and other points of interest in the east before returning.

The funeral of J. H. Graves Sunday afternoon was largely attended, there being a number from Roodhouse. Mr. Graves was a large holder of White Hall real estate, and was identified with the industrial interests of the city to a large extent. He was also president of the Elbridge company of Roodhouse, being one of the leading financial supports in making a success of that institution.

Poll tax is now delinquent and must be paid at once to the district clerk or at the Murrayville bank to avoid further cost.

Road District No. 11, for S. P. Jones, Highway Commissioner.

Mrs. Ellsworth Hiff and Russell Hiff of Hoopston are in the city attending to commencement exercises of Illinois Women's college.

“With the Colors”

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

Ben Ogle in France
The following letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ogle from their son, Ben Ogle, now with the troops on French soil:
Somewhere in France, May 12, 1918.
Dear Mother and All:
I will drop you a few lines and let you know I am enjoying the rest of health and hope this finds out all the same. Just received Harry's letter yesterday and was glad to hear from you. Also received a letter from Elsie the day before. This is Mother's Day and everybody is writing home. The right now. I guess I lost some when those boats went down. I never received your tobacco or candy yet. It might have gone down also. I didn't get any of those said creepers at the front this time, but had a fine bath and sterilized my clothes for safety first. Dad will soon have a birthday, won't he? Well, I wish him many more. I hear they are running the third draft now. Tell Pearl and Vallie I would like to help them eat the friers. Yes, I received Pearl's letter also.

Well, I must close for this time and will write you soon again.
As ever,
Ben Ogle.

From the Battle Front.
Mrs. George A. Smith of Piney street has received the following interesting letter from her brother, who is now in France.
The Field, France,
May 2, 1918.

Dear Sister:
I received your letter of April 4th, a couple of days ago and was glad to get it as I had not heard from home for some time. I guess you got my last letter telling of our retreat from Fritz and losing all our clothes. We are having it rather hard now, working and drilling. We work about 3 days and drill one. I have been drilling today and am more tired than I had worked. We are billeted in a very small village now, have been here a little over two weeks. It is an old town, each little town in this country has a church and of course this one has. The church is over 400 years old.

I was out on a truck a few days ago and saw an old chateau that was built in the thirteenth century. It was just like pictures of the old places. It had a high wall around it, also a deep moat filled with water, draw bridges and battle towers. I would like to have gone thru it but it was closed until after the war. I believe I told you about the old tower I saw that had a date 1112 cut in it. The buildings around here are made mostly of mud and straw and have slate roofs. I have not seen a shingle roof in this country. All slate and thatched straw. All the places have the barn, cow and pig sheds and chicken houses built together and have a small court in the center. When they clean the stables they throw the refuse out in the court in front of the doors and let it lie. They surely are unsanitary but seem to be very healthy.

We have a pretty good billet compared to some. We are in a barn but have a little straw. I don't suppose I would be able to sleep in a real bed, have been sleeping on the ground so long. I bunk with my corporal and we have a couple more blankets than the law allows. We first kick our straw around a little, all the same as pounding a feather bed, then we put two ponchos or waterproof ponchos down, then two half tents then three blankets over us with our coats for pillows we are very bon (very good). I am picking up quiet a little smattering of Frogie. Can ask for most anything I want such as wine, beer, water, coffee and tea, butter, meat, eggs and about anything I need and some things I don't. We are having a school every other night. Our Captain Millard is the instructor. He got the use of the school house for us. He is an accomplished linguist, speaking six different languages, so he makes a good teacher. These people use water only for coffee and once in a while for a bath. I suppose they don't know what it tastes like. They drink wine altogether and they sure have racy cheeks. I wish we could have some of that nice weather you speak of. We have nothing but cold and rain. It snowed all day one day week before last. Has been rather warm today, the first time for two months. In fact we wear our overcoats to and from work every day. I had an air ride the other day. It was fine but one sure has a sinking sensation in the region of his stomach when they go up about 5,000 feet and make a straight drop of about 4,000. One does not notice the machine dropping but the earth seems to be coming up to meet you. The same on a bank turn, the earth instead of the machine seems to be moving. I am going up again when I have time. I may get a chance to take a ride over Fritz's lines.

We are quite a way from the lines now. Can hear the guns but nothing like what we used to. We are going to get our service chevrons right away, the officers have theirs now. They are for the six months' service in the forward area. They look mighty fine. I guess we are about the first to earn them and about the last to get them. Ours were due the middle of February.

Yes, I got those magazines all O. K. but Fritz got them before I finished reading them. He sure tore up a good home for us. Yes, we set our clocks up here quite a while ago. Some time in February. I think Fritz will be getting all that is coming to him before long. I sure hope so any how. I believe by this time next year we will all be home. Say it sure would be a treat to put one's feet under a table once more. I don't suppose I would know how to act but would like to go in and get a drink, be a grand and glorious feeling. I have some one blow a bugle at 5:30 a. m. and be able to give him a good cussing and go back to sleep? Well I should smile.

Well, it is about time for that said bugle to sound soupy or mess call and I am about starved so will quit for this time and eat supper. have not heard from any of the folks for some time. Tell them to write. If the people in the States could see the men line up when mail issue sounds and see their faces light with expectation and then see the same faces cloud up with disappointment as name after name is called and they get nothing. Perhaps they would write more often, and would write to a follow whether they are personally acquainted or not. As a letter is a letter, even if it is not from home. I sure feel sorry for some of the fellows at such times for you know men are but children of larger growth. I am usually pretty lucky. Well, nut close. Hope George has a good trip. He sure started well. Give my love to the babies and the rest. Your loving brother,

Ernest H. Madison.

Lester Landreth Writes.
Somewhere in France,
May 19th, 1918.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Cleary:
Being located for the time being and having what I think a permanent postal address, I am taking this opportunity of sending you some sort of message to let you people know that I have not forgotten you.

My trip across was accomplished without a mishap and we landed at a French seaport, none the worse for our long voyage. Of course some of the boys contributed to the livelihood of the fishes. But that is to be expected. It is hard to realize that so much water, and especially salt water, could possibly be kept together without running over all the world. We were fortunate inasmuch as we had very little rough weather. Altho a couple of days the water was rather choppy.

We sighted land in the forenoon and lay at anchor till the next a. m., when we landed and were marched thru the streets of the town to our barracks, and then our eyes opened.

We marched up from the water front all the street was paved with cobble stones. The sidewalks if any, were about two feet wide so all of the people walked in the street. Nearly all of the houses have high stone walls around them and are built of either stone or cement. Lumber is very scarce, only the upper floors, doors and window casings being made of wood. The streets are very clean considering the lack of sewerage improvement, and men between the age of 18 and 40 are seldom seen, unless they are in a uniform. The women and girls are nearly all dressed either in Black or purple and our hilarity was soon squelched when the cause of the sombre dress was realized. The children all wear wooden shoes or else leather top shoes with wooden soles. When a couple of them would run down the street on the cobble stone it would sound like the stamped of wild horses on a hard pavement.

We reached our barracks and learned that the buildings were about 150 years old and still in very good condition. Buildings were surely put up to stay in those days. The Frenchman's method of livelihood and every day duties differ from ours so that it takes quite awhile to get used to them.

Our trip from there to where we are now, for you to realize that we can not use the name was one never to be forgotten. Not that it was one of discomfort or hardship, but the different way of travel that is used here. The first engines are about the size of a peanut roaster, the cars look like good sized soap boxes, with large wheels, no air brakes, but a very efficient hydraulic bumpers that work fine. They run very fast, especially down hill, in order to make the next grade. The brakeman is equipped with a bugle and a flag, so that the engineer will be sure to stop. The troop cars are marked "Schevaux or 40 homes" or in English 8 horse or 40 men, which struck me as being very funny.

The French farmers are the most thrifty set of people one can imagine.

They build their houses in a little group and the farms proper are all adjoining or compare the hub of a wheel with the houses and the spokes as the planted plots all fenced off in perfect form. The furrows are straight as a string, and when one realizes that all is done by even oxen or horses and no improved farm implements, not even a spreader, it is nothing short of wonderful. I don't think of the people seen in the field and the women. The oxen are gigantic in size and all of the live stock look very well taken care of. The carts are made very strong and heavy, and no four wheel vehicles are seen. Autos are all stored away for we have not seen half a dozen private cars since our arriving in France, but touring the country must be delightful for the roads are elegant and very hard but crooked as a cork screw.

This seems to be a more prosperous part of the country for the people appear to be better dressed. May 1st was a big day here and it looked as if every farmer for fifty miles around, came to town to celebrate, wearing their loose sateen over dress; and women with their white head-dress and the boys marching up and down the streets with red, white and blue streamers on their hats singing French songs, gave all appearance of a big day. The market place is in the center of the town where all kind of live stock and home-made products are sold. It is very interesting. Every Saturday is a market day here, but not on a large scale. Goats are herded here in large numbers, their milk sold and butter made of it. Kids (young goats) were sold at two francs each or about 10c in our money. I would like to have one for a mascot. But you know that is not to be considered.

A. Here and a very good Y. M. C. A. have and can buy cigarettes, candy tobacco, coffee, chocolates, and sandwiches and have the use of the piano, phonographs, games, and periodicals. Also have a place to play baseball, hand ball, foot ball, volleyball and have several pair of boxing gloves. In fact, I am having a fine time during my spare hours.

ceive this it will find me the same.
I remain a friend,
Lester C. Landreth.
P. S. If you folks feel like answering this letter, you will find my address on the envelope.

Glenn Scov writes the following letter to Edward Riley from Camp Shelby.
Camp Shelby, Miss., June 1, 1918.
Dear Uncle Eddy:

There are some addresses that I have but it all has to be on our mail. I promised to write you a big long letter after I got settled here. We have been in camp almost a week now. I am liking it just fine, as far as we have gone. The only things that bother the Illinois bunch are the water and weather. The water never gets cold across the river. The weather gets extremely hot here in the day time but gets cold before morning. When I say hot I mean 100 degrees in the shade, and no shade to get in. The only trees we see are a few pines 60 to 100 feet high. They grow up to about 40 or 50 feet before they start to branch out, so you know they give no shade.

I am now wearing my uniform. We got them Wednesday afternoon. You would not know me now because a uniform sure makes a difference in a fellow's looks. My shoes are only 10c a pair, a very large size, get very heavy sometimes. They make us wear our shoes large. We are in a camp of about 40,000 to 50,000 men. There is a uniform sure makes a difference in a fellow's looks. I think they will put us wherever they want us. There are 8 Y. M. C. A. headquarters here in the whole camp. That is where we get all the paper and envelopes we want free of charge. Today was our first inspection day. It will come every Saturday from now on. We have to have our tent all cleaned up and all march very much. I think they will spread out neatly on our cots. Our equipment so far consists of a cot, mattress, (to be filled with straw), two army blankets, a tooth brush, a comb, cake of soap, 2 pairs socks, 2 pairs pants, 2 shirts, 1 hat, 1 belt, 1 towel, 1 bag to keep our clothes in, also a mess kit which contains one cup, one fork, knife and spoon and a dish to eat out of.

I must stop now and put down our tent for more inspection. It is now about an hour later. It began to rain so we had to put up our tents. We have had one very hard rain here since we have been in camp. The rain is now over, lasted about 15 minutes and now the sun is out again, hot as ever. I said goodbye to my old suit of clothes this afternoon and started them back to Illinois. Tell Anna Pike I am with a fellow who says he knew her real well. His name is William Stockton from Sinclair. I suppose you would like to hear of our trip down here. As I have plenty of time I will tell you of it.
